

GARY GILL, CPA_[RET], JD

Gary works with companies that range from $10 MM to $100 MM that need outside professional assistance to ramp up all phases of their businesses as they transition to higher levels of sales and sophistication. He has experience in several industries ranging from food processing, manufacturing, oil and gas, and technology. He is usually brought in when a company has plateaued and cannot move forward from the current stagnant position. When brought in, Gary will assess all aspects of the company and work with management to make appropriate changes. While doing that he will perform all duties of the CFO which include forecasting, budgeting, managing outside stakeholders, financial reporting and other back-office duties. Gary will work closely with the IT department or outside IT consultants to transition a company to Cloud solutions in every phase of the business as available.

For over 30 years Gary has worked for private and public companies, domestic and international, in a variety of businesses as a CFO. For the past 20 years he has worked as a CFO for hire, starting with Tatum, LLC back in 2003. He has been involved in numerous funding opportunities both in equity and debt, restructures, and company sell-offs. While performing his duty as the acting CFO.

Gary is a member of the AICPA, and past member of the ABA, Iowa Bar Association, San Antonio Bar Association, and the Missouri society of CPA's.
